

Disciplinary and Appeal Policy & Procedure

Creation Date: March 2026

Review Date: March 2027

Purpose and Scope

The project's aim is to encourage improvement in individual conduct or performance. This procedure sets out the action which will be taken when disciplinary rules are breached.

Principles

The procedure is designed to establish the facts quickly and deal consistently with disciplinary issues. No disciplinary action will be taken until the matter has been fully investigated.

At every stage employees will have the opportunity to state their case and be accompanied, if they wish, at the hearings by a trade union representative or work colleague.

An employee has the right to appeal against any disciplinary penalty.

Procedure

Stage 1 – first warning

If conduct or performance is unsatisfactory, the employee will be given a written warning. Such warnings will be recorded but disregarded after [6] months of satisfactory service. The employee will also be informed that a final written warning may be considered if there is no sustained satisfactory improvement or change. (When the first offence is sufficiently serious it may be justifiable to move directly to a final written warning).

Stage 2 – final written warning

If the offence is serious, or there is no improvement in standards, or if a further offence of a similar kind occurs, a final written warning will be given which will include the reason for the warning and a note that if no improvement results within [6] months, action at Stage 3 will be taken.

Stage 3 – dismissal or action short of dismissal

If the conduct or performance has failed to improve, the employee may suffer demotion, disciplinary transfer, loss of seniority or dismissal.

Gross misconduct

If, after investigation, it is confirmed that an employee has committed an offence of the following nature (the list is not exhaustive) the normal consequence will be dismissal without notice or payment in lieu of notice:

- Theft
- Damage to property
- Fraud
- Incapacity for work due to being under the influence of alcohol or illegal drugs
- Physical violence
- Bullying
- Gross insubordination

While the alleged gross misconduct is being investigated, the employee may be suspended, during which time he or she will be paid their normal pay rate. Any decision to dismiss will be taken by the employer only after full investigation.

Appeals

An employee who wishes to appeal against any disciplinary decision must do so to the named person in the organisation within five working days. The employer will hear the appeal and decide the case as impartially as possible.
